8 § 1651. Certified Rangeland Management Specialty.

9 (a) A “Certified Rangeland Manager (CRM)” is a person who provides services pursuant
10 to Title 14 California Code of Regulations (CCR) 1602, at the request of the landowner
11 or hiring agent, relating to the application of scientific principles to the art and science of 12 managing rangelands and range on forested landscapes, as defined in California Public
13 Resources Code § 754. A CRM shall perform professional services only in those 14 subjects in which he or she is competent by training and experience.

15 (b) When a CRM is providing range management services related to the production of 16 forage and livestock on forested landscapes, an RPF shall be consulted if there are 17 potential impacts on related forest resources.

18 (c) Qualifications as a CRM may be achieved by submitting to the Board evidence of 19 certification by the professional society or public agency recognized under Public
20 Resources Code § 772 as a Certified Rangeland Manager, subject to 14 CCR § 1650.

21 The Board shall grant a specialty certificate upon (i) receiving evidence that the 22 applicant has met the CRM qualifications under the terms of the program, has 23 successfully completed any applicable written examination, has paid all fees due to the

1 professional society or public agency, if any, and upon (ii) payment of all applicable fees
2 to the Board pursuant to 14 CCR §§ 1605 and 1607.

3 ~~(d) The independent certification program submitted by CalPac SRM pursuant to its~~
4 ~~“Program for Certification of Professional Rangeland Managers” (PCPRM) dated June~~
5 ~~5, 1992, and amended and recognized by the Board on November 4, 1993 shall remain~~
6 ~~in effect until recognition is otherwise rescinded by the Board pursuant to 14 CCR §§~~
7 ~~1650(g).~~
